Show time.

In 2022, the Destination Wedding & Honeymoon Specialists Association (DWHSA) – the world's largest romance travel organization – tested its first officially endorsed virtual expo.

Now, you can join us for the next event set for Thurs., April 30, 2026!

This is the ONLY virtual event managed and endorsed by DWHSA.

We'll draw both current DWHSA members as well as non-member advisors and wedding planners.

And, we're eager to work with resort/hotel companies, cruise lines, tour operators, DMCs, excursion operators, national tourism offices, city visitors bureaus, and others who want to promote their romance travel packages and services!

Booth Chat

The April 2026 event will focus specifically on the romance travel packages and services you offer.

Who's invited?

After the COVID-19 pandemic, romance travel demand has exploded (as you well know!). Many U.S. and Canadian travel advisors want to grow sales with their preferred suppliers – but they're also eager to find new vendors, learn the latest news from their favorite romance destinations, and discover new places around the world ready to welcome their clients.

That's the reason we're doing these trunk shows each year – DISCOVERY!

For the April 2026 event, we'll focus on promoting the romance travel packages and services you can offer our members' couples and clients.

Along with DWHSA's current members (more than 800 advisors), we'll work with our consortia partners to promote attendance and we'll use the best email lists of agents offered by leading travel trade publications.

In your booth, you'll have full text chat and video chat capabilities – plus tons of space for your videos, brochures, and calls to action.

How it works.

We're seeking romance travel suppliers and DMOs to register for this event by Friday, April 10.

Starting Monday, April 13, you'll have your login to set up your booth. You may upload videos (including a welcome message), photos, brochure and flyer downloads, web site and social media links, and lots more!

You can invite more than one representative to join you in your booth on April 30 (e.g., one person to chat via text with booth attendees, and a second person to handle video chat requests).

Travel advisors and wedding planners may register through Wednesday, April 29.

On the day of the trunk show (Thurs., April 30), you may sign in as early as you wish to check out your booth and get ready when the doors open at 2 pm EDT.

Throughout the three-hour period, you may click a link on your screen to get quick technical support if you need it.

Once the show ends, we'll send you the next day (Friday, May 1) a complete list of the advisors and planners who attended the show so you can follow up immediately the day after the event!

Why attend as an exhibitor?

You'll lock in lots of exposure among advisors in this niche at a VERY affordable price. We know supplier/DMO budgets are very tight these days. (You must get invited to so many travel agent events!) Because DWHSA is an agent-run association, we don't need to run events like this "for profit" – our goal is covering our virtual expo software costs and promotional expenses to register the non-member agents. You may find the registration fee (USD$249-$399) to be the least expensive marketing you'll do in 2026!

We'll deliver extreme value to you for participating as an exhibitor. You'll save tons of time and money participating in this online expo from your office. And, the cost per lead will be well below $1 apiece – compare that to other travel agent marketing you'll do in 2026.

You'll find the same high-quality tools in your booth as those offered by much more expensive shows. We've partnered with an amazing vendor and served as "beta testers" for its brand-new booth software that rolled out just last year. From instant video chats for up to 15 booth attendees at once to chat logs that you can download after the event, you'll find the same booth tools seen in other events but at a much lower price point.

You'll reap the benefit of working with DWHSA – the world's largest network of romance travel specialists. We don't sell "email blasts," webinar slots, or any type of advertising to suppliers. In fact, only travel advisors can be DWHSA members. So, this virtual event - and our annual conference - are the ONLY ways you can get in front of our members who book 12,000+ destination weddings and 36,000+ honeymoons every year!

Jump on board with us!

The 2026 registration fee for romance travel suppliers and destination marketing organizations is USD$249-$399 for the half-day event. That rate includes your virtual expo booth, the ability to have more than one representative in the booth with you, and a copy of the comprehensive list of the travel advisors and wedding planners registered for the event.
