- The Community Over Competition Award

Please explain why this person should be recognized for this honor. Share specific examples of the nominee's work and the impact on fellow advisors and the travel industry and the public at large. The more information you can share, the clearer picture the judges will have of your nominee's qualifications to be selected!

Markgetta Langford has been an integral part of CCRA and the TRUE Code Accreditation program since 2019, serving as our Chapter Director in Atlanta, GA. With over 28 years of military service and a lifetime of global travel with her family, Markgetta turned her passion for exploration into a career by founding Langford Travel LLC along with her husband.

Markgetta embodies the values of leadership, education, and community. She believes education is the cornerstone of success in the travel industry and leads by example as a Chapter Director. She warmly welcomes advisors into our community, organizing impactful chapter meetings with suppliers to help them thrive. Her dedication goes even further—she is currently launching a comprehensive Travel Agent Training series exclusively for fellow TRUE members, driven purely by her desire to support and uplift others.

What makes Markgetta's contributions even more remarkable is her resilience. Despite facing a courageous battle with breast cancer, she remains unwavering in her commitment to our community. Her strength, selflessness, and enthusiasm inspire us all, as she continues to lead with grace and passion.

In addition to her role within CCRA, Markgetta runs an incredibly successful travel agency, excelling in group travel and even selling out entire hotels! Her boundless energy, positivity, and dedication set her apart as an admired leader in the travel industry. We are honored to nominate our friend and esteemed travel professional, Markgetta Langford, for this recognition.
