We are proud to nominate Paul as he embodies the true spirit of sportsmanship and selflessness. Since joining CCRA and the TRUE Code Accreditation program in 2020, Paul has been an invaluable member of our community, consistently leading by example.

Paul is often the first to offer a helping hand or share thoughtful advice, always welcoming new members with warmth and positivity. He goes above and beyond to foster a sense of togetherness in the travel industry, most notably by creating our first Holiday FAM experience—demonstrating his belief that collaboration and community lead to shared success.

His commitment to professional growth and education inspires those around him to stay engaged and strive for excellence.

Beyond his contributions to CCRA, Paul extends his impact globally through his partnership with 4Ocean, raising awareness about protecting the world's oceans.

Our TRUE Community would not be the same without Paul. His unwavering support and dedication to uplifting others make him truly deserving of this recognition.
